SUMMARY OF THE REASONS FOR DECISION:

The video recording Timeless is classified as:
Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 18 years.

The video recording Timeless contains a feature previously examined and classified as a DVD by the Office of Film and Literature Classification. The DVD version of the feature Timeless was classified as "Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 18 years", with the descriptive note "Contains explicit sex scenes". This decision was registered on 27 August 2001.

The video recording Timeless contains three notices and eight trailers for other sexually explicit video recordings that were not part of the previously considered DVD publication. This material does not require a higher classification than the feature. The previous classification of Timeless as "Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 18 years" is therefore appropriate, with the same descriptive note.
